Hon. William J. Casey
Director

Washington, D. C. 20506

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am enclosing materials explaining a different approach to studying and understanding communism as presented to me by a former Foreign Service Reserve Officer with service in the Middle and Far East countries, Southeast Asia, and Africa including the U.S. Mission to the United Nations.

It is Mr. Ness' opinion that the understanding of this approach by U.S. negotiators and Soviet scholars is critical if we as a nation are to effectively confront communism.

I would greatly appreciate your professional evaluation of this "Dialectic" method which is fully explained in the enclosures. I refer you first to Mr. Ness' speech on this subject.

I realize the constraints of your busy schedule, but I hope that you will take the time to analyze the merits of this proposal. I believe the strategy of the Dialectic system could prove to be very important for our national security.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Frank R. Wolf
